

TerraMai PDX opens on Portland's East Side First Retail Location Offering Reclaimed Wood Flooring and Furniture

PORTLAND and WHITE CITY, Oregon — January 12, 2017 — Today, TerraMai, the largest commercial provider of reclaimed wood, announced the opening of TerraMai PDX, the first retail outlet to feature its extensive selection of flooring, paneling, siding, and decking in a variety of finishes and looks made from reclaimed Teak, Oak, Redwood, Doug Fir, Walnut, and Acacia.

The 4,000-square foot showroom in Portland's Eastside Industrial District also stocks an exclusive line of sleek reclaimed wood furniture and live-edge slabs in addition to reclaimed treasures for woodworkers and DIY enthusiasts.

"I am very excited about TerraMai PDX. This showroom - thanks to its extensive onsite inventories - brings reclaimed wood directly to designers, homeowners, and remodelers," said Ken Westrick, owner of TerraMai and co-owner of TerraMai PDX. "We're building on more than 25 years of experience bringing reclaimed wood to market and with fantastic results. From rustic to refined, we have a sustainably sourced and beautiful product for a wide range of tastes."

With more than 60 employees based near Medford, Ore., TerraMai owns and operates a mill and finishing line in addition to working with partners around the world to source and mill reclaimed wood into ready-to-install flooring, paneling, and decking. The 25-year-old company employs a national sales team working with commercial customers and has supplied material for thousands of restaurants, retail stores, educational institutions, hotels, offices, and homes.

TerraMai PDX will celebrate its grand opening in Portland on Saturday, February 4, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The showroom is open Monday through Saturday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and noon to 5 p.m. on Sundays at 345 S.E. Yamhill St. in Portland. Find the showroom online at TerraMaiPDX.com.
